

Big Question Curriculum Map

(English and Maths planned separately)

PSHCE/School Values/British Values:

- Anti-Bullying Week
- Remembrance Day
- Being me in my world
- Celebrating Difference
- Children in Need
- Value – being kind

Computing:

- Use logical reasoning to make predictions
- Questioning about Antarctic Animals– To use a database to answer more complex questions

RE:

- Why does Christmas matter to Christians?

Opportunities for writing:

- Non-chronological reports
- Recounts
- Firework Poetry
- Letter writing

Year Group: 2

Term: 2

Big Question: How far will these feet take me?

Learning environment:

- WOW Starter – explorers morning finding around the school
- Communication with modern day explorers

Key vocabulary:

Continents, countries, Arctic, Antarctic, habitat, adaptation, oceans, climate, seasons, expedition, explorers,

Arts (including Art, DT, Music, Drama)

- Use a range of materials – penguin collage, water colour painting, paper snowflakes
- Poppy art for Remembrance Day
- Develop techniques of colour, pattern, texture, line, shape, form
- Music – Charanga Ho ho ho!

Science:

- Habitats
- Adaptation
- Ice lolly experiment
- Blubber experiment
- Open ended investigations
- Materials – Uses and Suitability

History/Geography:

- Name & locate world's continents/ oceans
- Geographical Vocabulary
- Significant local people – Edward Wilson
- Lives of significant historical figures – Scott/Amundsen & David Attenborough