Dear EYFS families

We are excited to let you know that on the afternoon of World Book Day (Thursday March 6th), the author Natalie McCallum (who also happens to be a Naunton Park parent) is coming to read her new book The Castaway Crab and share story ideas and activities with our EYFS classes.

The Castaway Crab is a picture book that aims to inspire the joy of reading whilst encouraging children to be brave and to believe in themselves:

Kris, the tiny Columbus crab, is fed up with spending life alone. He takes a gamble to discover what else life may bring, finding courage and companionship along the way. Most importantly, he learns that if you risk nothing, you will gain nothing. The message is: just dream big, even if you're small.

If you would like to order a signed copy of The Castaway Crab, copies are available to buy for £7.99 on Parent Pay. The deadline for this order will be Friday March 7th and books will be delivered to children soon after this.

We hope your children will have a lovely time finding out about Kris the crab and meeting Natalie.

Yours sincerely,

The English Team
